COURSE WEBSITE, RESOURCES AND MATERIALS:

- Fundamentals of Corporate Finance 10th Edition by Brealey, Myers and Marcus (IBIN 978-1-260-56609-3)
- Business Calculator

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
The course provides a more advanced understanding of business finance, including debt and equity decisions, currencies and exchange rates, and other advanced subjects.

LEARNING GOALS:

1. To understand the basic structure of corporate finance, especially dividend and buy-back decisions facing corporations, mergers and acquisitions and working capital management.

2. To understand how and why payout decisions are made, especially capital expenditures, dividends and stock repurchases.

3. To understand foreign currency markets and the basic forces impacting currencies, such as inflation, interest rates and general economic activity, and how these forces effect changes in exchange rates.

4. To understand how risk is measured and in particular, how options and futures are used to control business risk.

ASSIGNMENTS/RESPONSIBILITIES, GRADING & ASSESSMENT:
Goals 1 to 4 will be assessed via two interim exams (25% each), periodic quizzes (15%), research project (25%), and class participation (10%).

The project will require that students (assigned in groups) select a publically traded company, and identify a real or hypothetical investment opportunity or a merger or acquisition candidate. Project will also include the optimization of capital financing for the chosen activity. Students will have 15-20 minutes to present their research to the class and submit a 5-page written report plus the attachment of 1 original spreadsheet of the company being researched. Each presentation will be followed by a 5-minute class discussion.
ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
The university's policy on Academic Integrity is available at http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/academic-integrity-policy. The principles of academic integrity require that a student:

- properly acknowledge and cite all use of the ideas, results, or words of others.
- properly acknowledge all contributors to a given piece of work.
- make sure that all work submitted as his or her own in a course or other academic activity is produced without the aid of impermissible materials or impermissible collaboration. obtain all data or results by ethical means and report them accurately without suppressing any results inconsistent with his or her interpretation or conclusions.

- treat all other students in an ethical manner, respecting their integrity and right to pursue their educational goals without interference. This requires that a student neither facilitate academic dishonesty by others nor obstruct their academic progress.
- uphold the canons of the ethical or professional code of the profession for which he or she is preparing.

Adherence to these principles is necessary in order to ensure that

- everyone is given proper credit for his or her ideas, words, results, and other scholarly accomplishments.
- all student work is fairly evaluated and no student has an inappropriate advantage over others.
- the academic and ethical development of all students is fostered.
- the reputation of the University for integrity in its teaching, research, and scholarship is maintained and enhanced.

Failure to uphold these principles of academic integrity threatens both the reputation of the University and the value of the degrees awarded to its students. Every member of the University community therefore bears a responsibility for ensuring that the highest standards of academic integrity are upheld.
